

PACHINKO

Horses

I'm walking down Roppongi
The night is hot and smoggy
    I drink a little coffee
        A sake and a beer
    I run into a ginja man
    He speaks but I don't understand
    He grins at me and takes my hand
        And whispers in my ear

I play dejì pachi
I play dejì pachi
I play dejì pachi
In my pachinko dream
    I go uchi domi
        I go uchi domi
        I go uchi domi
    In my pachinko dream

My senses all asunder
I stand and stare in wonder
There's bright light and there's thunder
    In pachinko land

Well versed in the way of zen
My pockets lined full of yen
I walk the aisle and back again
    And sit at domo's hand

I play dejì pachi
I play dejì pachi
I play dejì pachi
In my pachinko dream
    I go uchi domi
        I go uchi domi
        I go uchi domi
    In my pachinko dream

I'm on the lexus fever
My hand tight on the lever
I'm shrieking like a diva

Staring in a trance

Turn the handle to the right
A stream of silver balls in flight
It screams and howls a blaze of light
The earth moves below me
I'm laughing tears of sheer delight
As i go uchi domi

I play dej i pachi
I play dej i pachi
I play dej i pachi
In my pachinko dream
I go uchi domi
I go uchi domi
I go uchi domi
In my pachinko dream
