

Whisper

Zeroes

There's a chip on my shoulder
People want me to act older
But I keep on getting younger
And they keep on getting colder
They can see the glimmer in my eyes
They can feel the dreamer is alive
But they're so afraid of heights
So afraid to fly
Within the villain the hero sleeps
And within the hero the villain weeps (X2)
On the edge of a knife we walk through this life
When the battle call comes the brave chose to fight
And the fearful survive
Bury their pride
Shackled by comfort, more dead than alive
The end is always coming, the truth is always near Fear is always empty, love is always here
You can waste your life taking
It's easier to give
We all live together but we don't all live
Within the villain the hero sleeps
And within the hero the villain weeps
Within the villain the hero sleeps
The hero speaks
Whisper, its only a whisper
It's only a dreamer screams the whisper
Whisper, its only a whisper
Only a dreamer screams the whisper
It's only a dreamer
But I'm more than a dreamer
More than a dreamer
More than a dreamer
I'm a believer
More than a dreamer (X3)
I'm a believer
Here they come to break your spirit
Burn your building with their glances
Give your name up when they find you
Take your life but never bind you
Whisper, its only a whisper
It's only a dreamer screams the whisper
Whisper, its only a whisper
Only a dreamer screams the whisper
It's only a dreamer
But I'm more than a dreamer
More than a dreamer
More than a dreamer
I'm a believer
More than a dreamer (X3)
I'm a believer
Believer (X2)
