Trespassing

Caesar

He's a visionair
He'll lead us to the land of milk and Money don't you love his smile and beatle hairdoCome to daddy, wants our minds to open up and cuddle
He's out to make us happy
He's gonna make us smile
Oh no it's all a lie againHave you ever felt so
Let down and disappointed
You feel like no-one would notice when you'd disappearYou'd just be out of here
And there'll be nothing waiting
Oh what a great deception
He's gonna make it right
Oh no, it's all a lie again
