

Extraction Zone

DragonForce

"Uh, we got a killstreak coming up if anyone's interested." It's getting late at night by a freezing moon
The time is running out and the end is soon
An army in despair, don't know what to do Impure thoughts are raging in this empty room
The victims are escaping, now we shall regroup
The times are getting tougher as we face our doom A circus of horrors waiting just for you
The barrel's bottom, anything will do
So take my hand and I will lead you right into Extraction zone, the zone
You can make yourself at home
Extraction zone, your zone
You don't have to feel alone
Where dreams become reality
And standards will now cease to be
So live your life in the extraction zone Another place, another time, we carry on
Not getting any easier 'cause we're getting on
A creature from another world, it's gone all wrong A circus of horrors waiting just for you
The barrel's bottom, anything will do
So take my hand and I will lead you right into Extraction zone, the zone
You can make yourself at home
Extraction zone, your zone
You don't have to feel alone
Where dreams become reality
And standards will now cease to be
So live your life in the extraction zone As a new dawn will rise
I promise myself, not again
But deep in my heart
The fire still burns just the same
It's just the same A circus of horrors waiting just for you
The barrel's bottom, anything will do
So take my hand and I will lead you right into Extraction zone, your zone
You can make yourself at home
Extraction zone, the zone
You don't have to feel alone
Where dreams become reality
And standards will now cease to be
So live your life in the extraction zone
