Born to Be Cheap

Divine

Cheap, cheap, I was born to be cheap, cheap
A child no mother could keep, cheap
As sure as there's trash
I was born to be cheapI was born to be helpless, I was born to be cold
I was born to never do what I'm told
I was to be shallow, wasn't born to be deep
Of all the things I was to be cheapCheap, cheap, I was born to be cheap, cheap
A child no mother could keep, cheap
As sure as there's trash
I was born to be cheapI was born to be crass, a loud brassy tart
No one can accuse me of having a heart
I was born to fast
I don't do it twice with anyone, get cheapCheap, cheap, I was born to be cheap, cheap
As I'm walking down the street, cheap
I'm always too much
I was born to be cheapI was born to be helpless, I was born to be cold
I was born to never do what I'm told
I was to be shallow, wasn't born to be deep
Of all the things I was to be cheapI'm cheap, I was born to be cheap, cheap
A child no mother could keep, cheap
As I'm walking down the street, cheap
I've always wanted to be cheap
I was born to be cheap
