

Hiroshima

Wishful Thinking

There's a shadow of a man
at Hiroshima
where he passed the moon.In a wonderland
at Hiroshima
with the August mood.
And the world remembers his face
Remembers the place was here.Fly, little bird, to Hiroshima
And the railroad.
Speak the magic words
to Hiroshima,
let the sky explode.And the world remembers his name,
Remembers the flame
was here/Hiroshima.Fly, little bird, to Hiroshima
And the railroad.
Speak the magic word
to Hiroshima,
let the sky explode.Fly, little bird, to Hiroshima
And the railroad
Speak the magic word
to Hiroshima
let the sky explodeAnd the world remembers his name, Remembers the flame
was here/Hiroshima.Hiroshima. (Ã—14)
