Dearly Demented

Bleeding Through

Give up your heartache
Build your weapon to destroy them all
We have been stabbed to death
Now our hearts replaced with this holeEye for an eye
Eye for an eye, life for a life
Together we are as one
The broken and the heartlessDestroy hypocrisy
To eliminate the weak
Behind every plastic smile
Lies the blood of humanityWe are the prophets of the night
And we will rise at our given timeEye for an eye, life for a life
Eye for an eyeWalk among the hopeless souls
We are coming for you
We are armed to the teeth
Ghost of invincibilityWe're coming for you
We're coming for you
We're coming for you
Dearly dementedThe holes in our chest, marks the bravery of slaves
Fighting for your life, fighting for your life
We are whores, the condemned
Because someone else once held our heart
Your broken heart, my broken heart
Your broken hand, your broken heartWe are the prophets of the night
And we will rise at our given timeEye for an eye, life for a life
Eye for an eyeWalk among the hopeless souls
We are coming for you
We are armed to the teeth
Ghost of invincibilityWe're coming for you
We're coming for you
We're coming for you
Dearly dementedWe are the prophets of the nightEye for an eye
We fight this fight for the hopeless romantic
Life for a life
We take this on for the battered and broken
Eye for an eye
We fight this fight for the hopeless romantic
Life for a life
For those who felt that they weren't good enoughI felt that way
And we all felt that way

Now we are rising up in numbers
And we will no longer be slavesWalk among the hopeless souls
We are coming for you
We are armed to the teeth
Ghost of invincibilityWe're coming for you
We're coming for you
We're coming for you
Dearly demented
