

Resignation Superman

Big Head Todd and the Monsters

He'll come flying out of this town
Resignation Superman
And today the bad guys win
'Cause he turned his cape in, now, he says
Yes, I've turned my back on this world
Yes, I've turned my eyes from this world, oh, well
Yes, he's tired of fighting in this town
All the suffering and vice
Wants to fall in love and
Maybe settle in and live a life
Now, I've turned my back on this world
Yes, I've turned my eyes from this world
Oh, Lord, I need to believe in You now that I'm suffering
Oh, Lord, I need to receive Your hand in my heart
And he keeps an eye upon this town
Resignation Superman
And he'll keep himself amused
With the Evening News, oh, he says
And I've turned my back on this world
Yes, I've turned my eyes from this world
Now I broke my back on this world
Now I've washed my hands of this world
Oh, Lord, I need to believe in You now that I'm suffering
Oh, Lord, I need to receive Your hand in my heart
