Living Hell

Dust Bolt

Attack! welcome you're thrown to the spot you live inside the war Casualties of world wide death on the last of the poor Bloodthined, join the feast you'll be served the preys of the scheme Methodical woolgathering malpracticed by the supremeEradicate the final goal, prosperity the single cause
Like a nuclear time bomb they'll send you into war Born inside this living hellPrison bars of social arrest, detonation of inner rage piercing loss of consciousness til the end of future days tattered until you're in the ditch, no one asks or cares when you get lost be another entry in the system be a slave , conform, consume for any costsEradicate the final goal, prosperity the single cause Like a nuclear time bomb they'll send you out to war
Come and face agony tortured and born inside this living hellA time bomb, they send you into war tortured, mistreated and broken down Now you're chances have died, a living hell has begun, you're born into a world of a world full of lies! We share the burden to bleed, we shall remain to fightDirty blood on every hand, isolated intimately toxicated formation, interaction of stupidityEradicate the final goal, prosperity the single cause
Like a nuclear time bomb they'll send you into war
Come and face agony
tortured and born inside this living hell
