

Bullet And A Target

Bliss n Eso

[Intro by Vusi:]

I believe that together we can really make a difference. One man cannot make a difference, but if we can partner, if we can have a collective will, and a willingness to make a difference in our nation, we can really do make a difference.[Muzi (Connections Zulu Choir Soloist):]

What you have done, is put yourself between a bullet and a target

Wont be long, wont be long...[Bliss:]

All it took was one in a trillion

In a world where there gunning civilians

Where conspiracies just drop on us

Like plummeting buildings

Government villains

At night, we are renegades who fight

Under a pilgrims plight

For a better way of life

See we sail the seas with a sun stained atlas

To escape the day to day mental mundane madness

That consumes us, its true, though my real Answer Lays

Is stepping back to view life's real grand Monet

But crucial issues are lost in this crazy worlds wealth

How can lust for bucks outweigh one baby girl's health?

Through the cyclone we hit the Third World and found heroes

With nothing but still everything, smiling at ground zero[Connections Zulu Choir:]

What you've done here, is put yourself between a bullet and a target

And it wont be long before youre pulling yourself away (x2)[Eso:]

So let the bullets in the air turn to raining rose petals

That covers the Earth's surface while the children throw pebbles

From dreams to themes, to a crack in the concrete

From a seed to a tree, I make it happen at God speed

Whatever happened to increase the Peace

Fight the power for people to defeat the beast

Well its right here, its right now

It's anything I plan

It's a poem that proves a point

It's everything I am

So on a rainy day

I made my way

To the Promised Land and back

And now its safe to say in a crazy way

This song is where its at

Its equal verse what wasn't given
Teachers verse the problem children
Evil verse the honest living
People verse the politicians[Connections Zulu Choir:]
What you've done here, is put yourself between a bullet and a target
And it wont be long before youre pulling yourself away (x2)[Eso:]
This is definite
Like the sun will rise
Pure like the thought
If I jump ill fly
I am revolution,
My path is belief
So how can they possible stop
What they cant even see[Bliss:]
See they tax the poor,
Their evil got em' coughing up
There's no real freedom
Under a legal modern mafia
Set the goal and unite,
Get cocked and take aim
The people are the power to make change
So make way[Connections Zulu Choir:]
What you've done here, is put yourself between a bullet and a target
And it wont be long before youre pulling yourself away (x3)
