Ion Square

Bloc Party.

Ion square, perspex swings, I breathe out, you breathe in
Permanent midnight, our love, our love
How we've come to depend on each other to the end
The space between us has disappeared
You finish my, you finish my words for me
I carry your heart here with me
I carry it in my heart
I remember how it began, so many great days in a row
Barefoot on Bishopsgate trying to find Blake's grave
If we could stay like this in a silver foil, trapped in amber for a life
Permanent midnight, our love, our love
I carry your heart here with me

I carry it in my heart
I carry your heart here with me
I carry it in my heart
I carry your heart here with me
I carry it in my heart
I carry your heart here with me
I carry it in my heart
I carry your heart here with me
I carry it in my heart
I carry your heart here with me
I carry it in my heart
