

Down and Out

Crossley Hunter

Everyone I know, they're putting me through hell
I'm digging me a whole to sacrifice myself I've been feeling like I don't know why I should try to understand or have it figured out When it rains it pours, got me thinking of you Got me feeling right Everywhere I go I'm feeling down and out
I'm seeing where I stand, I just forget myself
A subliminal guilt trip that you've been known to put me on It starts to take a toll
Something is about to give out When I face this storm I'll be thinking of you
You gotta taste the storm just to feel the light
