Black Sky

Shakespear's Sister

Come on, tune in to the life
Black sky, blue world, green eyesAnd you'll come running
To the dark side of the moon
And 'though you'll never find us
We'll still be watching youCome on, tune in to the life
Black sky, blue world, green eyesNo peace for the wicked
No rest for the good
No use in pretending
Love is in your bloodCome on, tune in to the life
Black sky, blue world, green eyesCome on, come on, come on, come on Come on, come on, come on, come on, come on
