

Black Sky

Shakespear's Sister

Come on, tune in to the life
Black sky, blue world, green eyes And you'll come running
To the dark side of the moon
And 'though you'll never find us
We'll still be watching you Come on, tune in to the life
Black sky, blue world, green eyes No peace for the wicked
No rest for the good
No use in pretending
Love is in your blood Come on, tune in to the life
Black sky, blue world, green eyes Come on, come on, come on, come on Come on, come on, come on, come on, come on, come on
