Brightless

Rakoth

I fall into a lifeless pattern of sin
Different, different, differentTake part, soul flammable gas
Play your role of uncertain death
I'm havin' neither part nor lot in such path
Measured with [Incomprehensible] stepsSo is your role as seems to me
Undoomed to fail and unrelieved
How will I know, I deny
I confess"More carrion for vultures", they said
Ne invoces expellere non passis
Do not call up that you cannot put downWhat am I feeling when you make me alive in the morning here
In the crystal caves of falling streams.
Within misty shades of falling leavesEvolved a plan to sell blue skies
Corrupted watcher mine demise
Idyllic place, huh, you want some more
Coffin on start, just push the door, a doorMy rudeness you will pardon
Never mind yourself, as you don't care at all
I am weary of men-sized chimerasSo is your life as it seems to me
Redoomed to fail unrelieved
How will I know?I give you a day as a gift to burn your lies
A night to strike up again
I am your watcher, your demise
