Enough

Jason Castro

You've got your mother's eyes
So young and innocent but then comes life
But as you grow and get older
I hope you always believe that you're everthing you were made to beI want to tell you something
I want to tell you that you're beautiful, not lost in a sea of souls
I want to tell you something
You're more important than you'll ever know, just look around you
Do you know that you're loved
Do you know? Do you know? That you are enoughSomeday that you'll tell me that you're fine
But I'll always know it when you're not alright
When you're feeling defeated, insecure, and let down
Don't let the pain put your fire outI want to tell you something
I want to tell you that your beautiful, not lost in a sea of souls
I want to tell you something
You're more important than you'll ever know, just look around you
Do you know that you're loved?
Do you know, do you know, that you are loved.
