

You Set Fire To My Life

Tina Arena

Falling in love with you is coming home,
You're always there although I'm mostly gone,
You took my hand then you let me leave,
You said,
Go light up the room so that's what I did,
Light up the room so that's what I did. Every time I called you lost and down,
It's in your voice that I find hallowed ground,
You say you love me like the wall surrounds,
You make me light up the room like I've just been found,
Light up the room like I've just been found. You set fire to my life,
Oh oh oh oh oh,
And the feeling remains forever young,
Oh oh oh oh oh,
Whether will you feel the same,
When I'm older, I'm living the moment,
If everything was gone tomorrow,
You set fire to my life,
Oh oh oh oh oh,
You set fire to my life now, I want to tell you but it's not enough,
You gave me freedom for the both of us,
It's so easy to let go these days,
With love like this, I know we're here to stay,
I wouldn't have it any other way, You set fire to my life,
Oh oh oh oh oh,
And the feeling remains forever young,
Oh oh oh oh oh,
Whether you feel the same,
When I'm older, I'm living the moment,
If everything was gone tomorrow,
You set fire to my life,
Oh oh oh oh oh,
You set fire to my life now. Let the rain fall down,
Down, down, down,
Let the fire burn all around you and me.
(Ooooooooooooooh) You set fire to my life,
Oh oh oh oh oh,
And the feeling remains forever tomorrow,
OH oh oh oh oh,
Whether you feel the same,

When I'm older, I'm living the moment,
If everything was gone tomorrow
You set fire to my life,
Oh oh oh oh oh,
You set fire to my life now.
