A New Beginning

Empyria

Look back
It's the same old story
You left me, you left me brokenhearted
I really need a new beginning again
Now it's time to say goodbye
Every second's just a hole in my mind
Yeah, now this is what you get
Your heart belongs to someone else and yeah
You get that you fought, you cried, you did everything
Everything for nothing
I will take back everything that we built together
I'm here, I'm leaving to a better side
Where I can be myself again, I saw the past through your eyes
You won't see me again
Because I'm gone for good
I'm leaving, I'm leaving
Why did I waste my time on you?
You made me believe
Now I can see I'm on my own
I'm leaving, I'm leaving
Why did I waste my time on you?
You made me believe
Now I can see I'm on my own
The day I leave will be the day that you die inside
I won't come back, you bitch

BLAAAAAH!
I gave you everything, but you were too blind to see
You were too deaf to hear
I'm leaving, I'm leaving
Why did I waste my time on you?
You made me believe
Now I can see I'm on my own
I'm leaving, I'm leaving
Why did I waste my time on you?
You made me believe
Now I can see I'm on my own
All your words are covered by failing lies
Look me in the eyes and tell me you really loved me

The day I leave will be the day that you die inside
The day I leave will be the day that you die inside
I'm leaving, I'm leaving
Why did I waste my time on you?
You made me believe
Now I can see I'm on my own
I'm leaving, I'm leaving
Why did I waste my time on you?
You made me believe
Now I can see I'm on my own
