

My Love

Anastasia A

woah oh yeah
I never thought I'd see you again
woah oh yeah
I never thought that i would ever find some one like you my broken heart cant understand it just cant see the truth
I've always told myself that i should walk before I run
I couldnt help it I just wanted you to be the one
They say that if it's true love and you let it go
If it comes back then its yours you should really know
I didn't want to have to breath with out your love you didn't tell me that I am all your dreaming of
woah oh yeah
I never thought I'd see you again
woah oh yeah
I can't explain it I could never be with out your here it all makes sense when your around you've made it really clear I'll do whatever it takes to keep this love alive
I know that you can feel my heart its beating deep inside
They say that if it's true love and you let it go
I didn't want to have to breath with out your love
you didn't tell me that I am all your dreaming of woah oh yeah, I never thought I'd see you again, oh oh yeah Just when i thought you'd break my heart you came and turned it all around could not believe , that you would be my love my love Oh oh
woah oh yeah
oh I never thought Id see you again x 2
I never thought that I would ever find someone like you
my broken heart cant understand it just cant see the truth
I've always told myself that i should walk before I run
I couldn't help it I just wanted you to be the one
