

Far From Heaven

Dream Theater

No one truly has the answers
Everyday
I struggle through it once more
Keep things bottled up
Never speaking my mind
Misinterpreted
I'm doing just fine
Everyday I put a brave face on
Serves me well
Feeling helpless
Facing it alone
Hard to tell
That I can't change who I am
How I feel
There's no end
I have done what you asked of me
Leaves me nothing to live for
Coming undone
Way too high a price
I should pay
You keep your pride
While I die inside
Everyday
No I can't lie anymore
Won't pretend
I've done all I can
You can't imagine
The hell I'm going through
Not asking you to save me
I'm too far from heaven
