

Carol of the Bells

Mormon Tabernacle Choir, Richard P. Condie, Alexan

Hark how the bells,
sweet silver bells,
    all seem to say,
    throw cares away
    Christmas is here,
    bringing good cheer,
        to young and old,
        meek and the bold,
    Ding dong ding dong
        That is their song
        With joyful ring
        All caroling
    One seems to hear
    Words of good cheer
        From ev'ry where

    Filling the air
    Oh how they pound,
        raising the sound,
        o'er hill and dale,
        telling their tale,
        Gaily they ring
        while people sing
    songs of good cheer,
        Christmas is here,
    Merry, merry, merry, merry Christmas,
    Merry, merry, merry, merry Christmas,
        On on they send ,
        on without end,
    their joyful tone to every home Dong Ding dong ding, dong Bong
