Chapter oneDowncast of shadows, the self denied
The self denied of hidden places
Lost passages, pure volatile
Dripping from the cracks that keep youLost in parables
Convulsions of the epileptic kingdoms that bestow
Clean thorough antiseptic
Scrubbing deep into the boneCondensing the marrow
Taste perfected
The cattle won't disown
The human man must be inspectedIf I were to touch you
Would you wither in my arms?
And if I were to love you
Would you motion to disarm?
Sense of warningChapter twoRigid from the petrified essence
Estimated measures
Celestial in my presence
A stew of precious treasurersReaction from the casualties
That surround me slithering
A transparent excess suppressing
Pull the leverChapter threeFall infected down
Miracles designed for success
All of us, are you harvesting with the maggots?
Falling hard with dung on your breathInfesting what is pure and damaged
Like swarms of locust feeding
Born first, still in needingChapter fourAlert the dogs flee an expert on penalty
Without vision the birds of the air will
Pick at your skull, calloused clothed in darkness
Tragedies turn providing alternativesDevelopment additives sediments
Firm evolving supporting the process
Dedicated moments of silenceChapter fiveQuest of the new
Increasing the magnification of your velocity
Would this be considered growth through hypocrisy

Advancement merging with the contents of the universeThe focus of enhancement
Evacuate the premises that continue to revolve
Cluttering of arrangements that continue to dissolve
You accelerate beyond the surrounding bordersMaintain the order, irradiation
The newest method of preservation
Radioactive spastic and down for the cause
Spoiled by mold, nuclear turbines
Fool injected outlawed Newton's third law of motion
