Monogamy

Skimmer

I pack my things I go
I leave you all alone
Well J. it`s about time
To face the facts
Our relationship sucks
Oh after six years of sex with you I'm blured
Oh even a beauty can bore
Monogamy, my agony
Is not inborn
When I`ve said
I`ve done it all for you
I`ve always been true blue
Whenever you were sad
I was there
Yeah
I lied
All the nights I spent through
Lying next to you
Listening to your breath
It`s such a drag
To loose the best I`ve ever had
To accept the fact that I will miss you
...ignore the fear of being alone
My Venus is there nothing left between us
Monogamy my agony
Is not inborn
CHORUS
I`ve done it all for fucking you
I`ve always been true blue
Whenever you were so sad
I was there
