

Maze of Torment

Morbid Angel

Life betrayal, a warping rage
Evil ripping caverns through your mind
Immolation, in blood you've signed your soul away
Sickening life ends but the horror has just begun Vultures moaning a funeral dirge
Walls await to cradle you and rip your soul apart
Incessant screams echoes through the maze
Insanity approaches, imminent demise Maze of torment
Maze of torment
Maze of torment
Maze of death Stricken from the holy book deliverance to pain
Effigy of Jesus Christ burning in your mind
Voices cry out to bid you welcome
Locked within the dungeons of darkness, no escape Maze of torment
Maze of torment
Maze of torment
Maze of death Passing through corridors, embedded with Scars of those who have gone before you
And left their marks Warning comes, too late to save you now
Visions of suffering stab from the inside You pray for death
Mourning does no good
As you can only die once Souls are being raped by the maze
Lost in these halls endlessly Maze of torment
Maze of torment
Maze of torment
Maze of death
