are you afraid to fall? will you tell me man?
do you see the core? every now and then
thinking of your past, you`re thinking of therest thinking that yu`re weakthe enemy is inside you - no!
going insane - no!
heart insults - no!
shup the fuck up now! listen to the fire!
the enemy is inside you - no!
going insane - no!
heart insults - no!
shup the fuck up now! listen to the fire!
or we won`t talk...but you won`t regret what you did before tell me what you see deep inside yourself then you start to run from your own disease inside you the war just cutting out your dreamsthe enemy is inside you - no!
going insane - no!
heart insults - no!
shup the fuck up now! listen to the fire!
the enemy is inside you - no!
going insane - no!
heart insults - no!
shup the fuck up now! listen to the fire!
or we won`t talk...and you know someone else lives in your mind and someone else sees through your eyes i seat in front of you at nights waiting to posses you
no! i just want to be alone while the air pierces my lungs it`s hammering my head, saying hurt yourself and diewish it was a lie, it`s a hidden truth you feel it inside knocking at your door
thinking of your past, you`re thinking of the rest thinking that you`re weak, you`re living just too fast
