

Lost

Avenged Sevenfold

Centuries pass and still the same
War in our blood, some things never change
Fighting for land and personal gain
Better your life, justify our pain
The end is knocking, the end is knocking We've all been lost for most of this life
(Lost for most of this life)
Everywhere we turn more hatred surrounds us
And I know that most of us just aint right
(Most of us just aint right)
Following the wrong steps, being led by pride How many lives will we take?
How many hearts destined to break?
Nowhere to run, can't escape
Full of ourselves, tied to our fate
The end is knocking, the end is knocking We've all been lost for most of this life
(Lost for most of this life)
Everywhere we turn more hatred surrounds us
And I know that most of us just aint right
(Most of us just aint right)
Following the wrong steps, being led by pride With peace of mind so hard to find
We're dwelling on the drastic signs
Another way to numb our mind
And as you close your eyes tonight and pray for a better life
You'll see it flying helplessly away We've all been lost for most of this life
(Lost for most of this life)
Everywhere we turn more hatred surrounds us
And I know that most of us just aint right
(Most of us just aint right)
Following the wrong steps, being led by pride We've all been lost for most of this life
Everywhere we turn more hatred surrounds us
And I know that most of us just aint right
Following the wrong steps, being led by pride We've all been lost for most of this life
Everywhere we turn more hatred surrounds us
And I know that most of us just aint right
Following the wrong steps, being led by pride
