

You Got Soul

Glenn Hughes

Down in Saint Jude's hall, you star in a play
You're ready to free fall, the children do say
Euphoric recall will take you awayUnderneath your skinI know that you travel, on your astral plane
The deepest respect, can you hear my refrain
So nice to meet you, when I was in SpainUnderneath my skin
Here it comes againSay yeah, yeah yeahYou got soul
You got soulYou ain't done nothin' wrong
The flesh is weak, but the spirit is strongYou got soul
You got soulI knew it all along
Your eyes do speak, when I sing my songThe Dalai Lama do whisper and say
Deep in your karma the demon you slay
You be the one and you blow me awayUnderneath my skin
Here it comes againSay yeah, yeah yeahYou got soul
You got soulYou ain't done nothin' wrong
The flesh is weak, but the spirit is strongYou got soul
You got soulI knew it all along
Your eyes do speak, when I sing my songUnderneath my skin
Here it comes againSay yeah, yeah yeahYou got soul
You got soulYou ain't done nothin' wrong
The flesh is weak, but the spirit is strongYou got soul
You got soulI knew it all along
Your eyes do speak, when I sing my song
