

Brave the Fire

Obey the Brave

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Obey the brave - brave the fire
Whats going on where do we stand?
I stay up till dawn trying to understand?
So many questions left unanswered, should I move on or push this forward?
And every day is the same, still the fire burns I see through smoke and flames.
Lets lay the new foundation to build upon. Lets find the strength to carry on. Horrible liar cant you pull through,
what you would feel like starting anew.
everyday I feel it blow, but everyday I make it grow.
Its time to let go, to keep you near, try to wait for the smoke to clear, everyday I feel It blow, don't let me get over you. Sure you know what your stance is.
No second chances, I am done with your message.
Cant lay a new foundation ill just disregard Ill go my way im moving on. Horrible liar cant you pull through,
what you would feel like starting anew.
everyday I feel it blow, but everyday I make it grow.
Its time to let go, to keep you near, try to wait for the smoke to clear, everyday I feel It blow, don't let me get
over you BRAVE THE FIRE, OOOOOH BRAVE THE FIRE
Out of sight never out of mind, shedding light on whats left behind, out of sight never out of mind Horrible liar cant you pull through, what you would feel like starting anew.
everyday I feel it blow, but everyday I make it grow.
Its time to let go, to keep you near, try to wait for the smoke to clear, everyday I feel It blow, ah fuck it im over you.
never thought id see the day never thought id walk away. Never thought this would come ill turn the page, I'll overcome
