

Girl Down in Texas

Josh Abbott Band

There's a girl down in Texas, hold hopes in her eyes
A smile so soft & warming it stays with you for miles
She's a lifetime of happy years, she's a million memories
There's a girl down in Texas & she's waiting on me
So give her the riverwalk instead of Broadway, 6th street over LA

And a salty margarita over a martini, give me her in a poncho by the fire at night on the Frio
Safe in my arms is right where she wants to be, there's a girl in Texas waiting on me
She's a Sunday morning stroll, at the park by the lake

The answer to my prayers when I start to lose faith, and when I'm on the lonely road chasing my dreams
There's a girl down in Texas waiting on me
So give her the riverwalk instead of Broadway, 6th street over LA
And a salty margarita over a martini, give me her in a poncho by the fire at night on the Frio
Safe in my arms is right where she wants to be, there's a girl in Texas waiting on me
Takes an angel of a woman to do everything she needs, to be herself and not reel in and still find time for me
So give her the riverwalk instead of Broadway, 6th street over LA

And a salty margarita over a martini, give me her in a poncho by the fire at night on the Frio
Safe in my arms is right where she wants to be, yeah there's a girl in Texas waiting on me
Ooh there's a girl down in Texas in love with me
