

The This This

Late Night Alumni

Ever since I remember
I've held it in
Held it all Somehow I felt comfortable
Behind my wall
Behind it all This is why I don't cry
This is why I don't cry Tears they only compromise
Things I need to visualize This is why I don't cry
This is why I don't cry Tears they only minimize Everything I keep inside I bet you think I'm lonely
You may be right
I just might And if you want me to break down
It would be a sight
But not tonight This is why I don't cry
This is why I don't cry Tears they only compromise
Things I need to visualize This is why I don't cry
This is why I don't cry Tears they only minimize Everything I keep inside
