

Be Good (feat. Dave East)

Lumidee

I've been through many stops
I've been through all the things
Sometimes I get it wrong, I gotta say
But now I wanna change
With you, if gimme a reason
I might just keep it true
Give it a shot, boy, we got nothing to lose
I could be your ride or die
I ain't telling you no lies
I think we could get this
I'll be good if you want me
Just be the one I've been dreaming of
I'll be good, baby, cause even bad girls need love
And this how much I just might switch it up
Cars drive by with the booming system
Cars drive by with the booming system
Cars drive by with the booming system
Cars drive by with the booming system
Uh, you kinda bad, but I like that Even if I leave, I be right back
Thinking' I can wife that, that Channel fitting' right
She be in the gym, already ate when I come home I'll prolly eat again
Some lean back, get a style on Always texting' on my iPhone, the one I got my eyes on
You know the type, act mean but really nice
Hard to get that advice, but I could give it tonight, huh
If she good, she know I come from the hood
If she let me take advantage, I'd probably would Give her all the love that I got, I probably could
But everytime I see her in public she Hollywood
Stop actin' funny, already knowing' the outcome
I'mma end up in the middle, like I'm Malcolm
Thirsty for love, that's the reason I'm out front
Rather have a couple on deck than be without none
Peace!
I'll be good if you want me
Just be the one I've been dreaming of
I'll be good, baby, cause even bad girls need love
And this how much I just might switch it up

Cars drive by with the booming system
Cars drive by with the booming system
Cars drive by with the booming system
Cars drive by with the booming system
Now they don't even know
Where we getting that lean
I swear the shit's insane
You lit the flame, I'm on a whole new page
With you, if you gimme a reason
I might just keep it true
Give it a shot, boy, We got nothing to lose
I could be your ride or die
I ain't telling you no lies
I know we could get this
I'll be good if you want me
Just be the one I've been dreaming of
I'll be good, baby, cause even bad girls need love
And this how much I might switch it up
Cars drive by with the booming system
Cars drive by with the booming system
Cars drive by with the booming system
Cars drive by with the booming system
Cars drive by with the booming system
Cars drive by with the booming system
Cars drive by with the booming system
Cars drive by with the booming system
Cars drive by with the booming system
