Happy In the Morning

Nikka Costa

Kisses sweet you wake me
With the first tease of the sun
And I'm gonna have my day made
Before it's even begun
Between working or playing with you
You help me make up my mind'Cause it don't matter if I miss the train
They don't pay me enough anyway
And if they did I'd forfeit every dime
To hear you say
I'm about to make the sun shine
Brighter in your day babyYou make me happy in the morning
And when I go to bed
You take all my naughty thoughts
And they get put to use insteadAnd it feels like I've been dreaming
But my pillow never hit my head
You make me happy in the morningSugar's too sweet to ignore
Maybe just five minutes more
Your love is shining all over my worldBetter run if you don't plan on making
Something of yourself
But I give in the minute you give me
Some loving on which to dwellI'll take on the world tomorrow 'cause
I'm taking off today, baby
'Cause it don't matter when you take me on
Before the sun even risesAll my troubles stay far away
'Cause you're a sight for sleepy eyes
And it's a wonder I get anything done
With your kind of love in my lifeYou make me happy in the morning
And when I go to bed
You take all my naughty thoughts
And they get put to use insteadAnd it feels like I've been dreaming
But my pillow never hit my head
You make me happy in the morningSugar's too sweet to ignore
Maybe just five minutes more
Your love is shining all over my worldYou make me wanna
You make me wanna get on up in the morning
Get on up in the morning
Get on up in the morningYou make me happy in the morning
And when I go to bed
You take all my naughty thoughts

And they get put to use insteadAnd it feels like I've been dreaming
But my pillow never hit my head
You make me happy in the morning
Happy in the morning
Your love is shining all over my world
