Castle Street

Lewis Watson

We've said some things we didn't mean
With us there is no inbetween from where we're standing i think, we both know,
maybe we're better off aloneUnder the bridge on castle street, we wrote our names in the concrete but it's so different now and,
we both know,
maybe we're better off aloneno la-light,
no la-light,
daylight gonewe got fire on our tongues, we've got no air left in our lungs,
and if were done,
then i'll come,
i feel love, i feel love
when did our hearts turn to stone?
is all that's left just skin and bone?
and if were done,
then i'll come
i feel love, i feel love, i feel lovetrying to climb these narrow stairs we stop ourselves from splitting hairs maybe it's time that we gave, up the ghost,
maybe we're better off aloneno la-light,
no la-light,
daylight gone
no la-light,
no la-light,
to take me homewe got fire on our tongues,
we've got no air left in our lungs,
and if were done,
then i'll come,
i feel love, i feel love
when did our hearts turn to stone?
and if were done,
then i'll come
i feel love, i feel loveI feel love, I feel love,we got fire on our tongues,

we've got no air left in our lungs,
and if were done,
then i'll come,
i feel love, i feel love
when did our hearts turn to stone?
and if were done,
then i'll come
i feel love, i feel love, i feel lovewe said some things we didn't mean,
with us there is no inbetween
