Senseless Fight

Caliban

Yeah, I've got the space I need
I've got the air to breathe
I've got the mood to bleed
I need to breathe to bleed
I need to breathe to bleedThis senseless fight will never end
You teach me to forget I cannot winI feel weak and helpless
This prison make me sick
You teach me to forget
But forget means disrespect, yeahThis senseless fight will never end
(Will never end)
You teach me to forget I cannot winYeah, just let me go and don't look back
While my flesh begins to burn
Just come back to bury my forsaken soul
And tell my heart goodbye, goodbyeThis senseless fight will never end
(Will never end)
You teach me to forget I cannot win
