Let It Out

Frances

Little did we know at the time
We had so much of us still to find
With our young and innocent minds
So beautifully blind
It's a pretty rare happiness that we know
And a pretty cold sadness if it goes
The fear of falling too far away
So out of reach that you can't catch me one dayAll this glitter and dust
Flying 'round the words in our mouths
Can't stay, let it out, yeah, let it out
Everything and even nothing
I feel your tears in my eyes
Looking out, waiting for a chance
To break, let it out, yeah, let it out
Everything I need for nothing(Oh, oh, oh, oh)
(Oh, oh, oh, oh)
(Oh, oh, oh, oh)
(Oh, oh, oh, oh)Is it just my own heavy head
That's making me so cold in your bed?
I used to feel like nothing could touch us
Maybe you feel the same
It's a pretty rare happiness that we know
And a pretty cold sadness if it goes
The longer we pretend it's alright
We'll start exploding and be too weak to fightAll this glitter and dust
Flying 'round the words in our mouths
Can't stay, let it out, let it out
Everything and even nothing
I feel your tears in my eyes
Looking out, waiting for a chance
To break, let it out, you let it out
Everything and even nothingEven if you think it's nothing
(Oh, oh, oh, oh)
(Oh, oh, oh, oh)
(Oh, oh, oh, oh)
(Oh, oh, oh, oh)All this glitter and dust
Flying 'round the words in our mouths
Can't stay, let it out, let it out
Everything and even nothing

I feel your tears in my eyes
Looking out, waiting for a chance
To break, let it out, you let it out
Everything and even nothing(Oh, oh, oh, oh)
(Oh, oh, oh, oh)
(Oh, oh, oh, oh)
(Oh, oh, oh, oh)
