Cordless Kids

The Bronx

i wanna set something on fire something history will admire everything that you desire i wanna force a new train of thought politics that can't be bought neighborhoods that aren't forgot riots downtown
burning the city down
change is coming
without a warning
your futures buried in the past
it won't last
ill never wake up and be part of a lie another puppet with strings to the sky you want the answers baby don't ask why
riots downtown
burning the city down
cowards will watch
pray to a blistered cross
your futures buried in the past
it won't last
cordless kids
violent youth
break your glass
find your truth
