Open Your Eyes

Black Box

Open your eyes, open your eyes
Open your eyes, open your eyes
Open your eyes, open your eyesLove is freewheeling, keeps me wakin' all night long
But just like makin' love becomes a part of you
Nobody's losing when we get so satisfied
Because of you I've got to shouting out my love
Shouting out my love, shouting out my love
Shouting out my love, my loveOpen your eyes, there's my love, turn it over
Open your eyes, it's no time to be afraid
Open your eyes, till the dawn's up and over
Open your eyes, there's your bed and it's madeGimme that feeling and we'll rock it on out strong
But when we're makin' it just like I do to you
The night is growing and I think we're gonna fly
It's just for you that I'll be shouting out my love
Shouting out my love, shouting out my love
Shouting out my love, my loveOpen your eyes, there's my love, turn it over
Open your eyes, it's no time to be afraid
Open your eyes, till the dawn's up and over
Open your eyes, there's your bed and it's madeOpen your eyes, there's my love, turn it over
Open your eyes, it's no time to be afraid
Open your eyes, till the dawn's up and over
Open your eyes, there's your bed and it's madeShouting out my love, shouting out my love
Shouting out my love, shouting out my love
Shouting out my love, shouting out my love
Shouting out my love, shouting out my love
Shouting out my loveOpen your eyes, open your eyes
Open your eyes, open your eyes
Open your eyes, open your eyes
