Lifeboat

Janet Devlin

All the little pieces of my heart
Flicker as they fall to the ground Perfectly askew just how I like
You don't need to carry a search light
I can see them fine on my own Perfectly at one just how I likeSave your scissors for they are rusty now
I don't need a lighthouse
to try and show me howI don't need a lifeboat
I'm learning how to swim
It may look like I'm drowning
But I'm learning how to live
I don't need your rescue
for I'm okay now
I can see the shoreline
So turn your lifeboat 'roundEven on my thoughts can be cloudy Silver lines are always in sight Perfectly unclear just how I like
And i can guarantee
Even in the darkest of the nights Perfectly on time just how I likeSave your scissors
for they are rusty now
I don't need a lighthouse
to try and show me howI don't need a lifeboat
I'm learning how to swim
It may look like I'm drowning
But I'm learning how to live
I don't need your rescue
for I'm okay now
I can see the shoreline
So turn your lifeboat 'roundSave your scissors
for they are rusty now
I don't need a lighthouse
to try and show me howI don't need a lifeboat
I'm learning how to swim
It may look like I'm drowning
But I'm learning how to live
I don't need your rescue
for I'm okay now

I can see the shoreline
So turn your lifeboat 'round
