

What's This All About

Ayo

We've been born to obey,
Not to loose, and not to fade.
Born with one aim - not to go astray.
We were born with eyes so we think we can see.
Not knowing we're blind, we beleive everythin'.
We think we're afraid,
But in fact we'll never be.
Our body's a trip,
Our minds are possesed.
Our soul is in danger, caused by people's anger.
And we all woudn't have seen
Our love is suffering.What's this all about?
What's this all about?
Guess I get it now.
Guess I get it now.
We've been taught how to play
That we never win the game.
'Cause them are setting the rules
So we go follow like fools.
And we're once out of reach,
They gon' put it on a leash.
So that they can control
And that you'll never know.
Everywhere is war, but what are they fightin' for,
If not for Lord?
See, everywhere is war, but are we fightin' for,
If not for us?
I know they scared of us
We could be dangerous
If we all become
United as one!
What's this all about?
What's this all about?
Guess I get it now.
Guess I get it now.They want us to fight with another
Kill each other
Break, hate, betray a brother. They
Take from a mother
Get the name of her father

It's the way they want to believe
Our lead is a thing.
We're the daughter, we're the son
We're the people, we are one
We're the source, we're the force
We're the Earth, we're the stars
We're the fire, we're the hand,
The queen and we're the kings.
We're the thunder, we're the rain
We gotta break these chains! What's this all about?
What's this all about?
Guess I get it now.
Guess I get it now.
What's this all about?
What's this all about?
I guess I get it now.
