Fool's Corner

Saybia

I'm passing through the doorway now
Everything is upside down
The one that I am leaving
Is the one I'm really trying to find
I know
It's so stupid
And it's tearing me down
But a lack of self confidence
Is keeping me down
Tonight
All night
I tried telling you everything's not broken
But you cried when telling me all we had is gone
I'm drifting through the morning breeze
Colours blurring in my eyes
The one that I am missing
Is the one drifting by my side
I know
It's so stupid
And it's tearing me down
But a lack of self confidence
Is keeping me down
Tonight
All night

And I tried telling you everything's not broken
But you cried when telling me all we had is gone
And I tried telling you everything is alright
'Cause I feel that deep down inside you
I'm still there
I'm still there
I'm still there
I'm still there
Still there
Tried
Tried
Tried
Tried
And I tried telling you everything is alright

'Cause I feel that deep down inside you
I'm still there
I'm still there
I'm still there
I'm still there
Still there
