

Boulevard

Dick Prall

Boulevard

Each step cuts half a yard
I sing down the boulevard
 Fits and starts
 Accelerates then parts
 My song is a boulevard

Avenue

I want to rush right through
 The arms of the avenue
 Bathed in blue
 No supercell to ruin
 My song on the avenue

So I walk along the way

Taking on those summer rays
 Heating up the skin
 That makes my face
 Iâ€™ve never lost my place
 I go down every road
 I can weave around
 These seams to to get me
 Where I want to settle in
Or settle down or settle on some Little part
 That Iâ€™ve never seen
 Or may not seen again
 Displayed in tired sets
High rise combs and homes so fresh
 From the residue
 Iâ€™m kicking up along the avenue

The marketâ€™s coming downâ€!
