

Black And White

INXS

Could be clear, black and white
Make a decision
Got a need inside and I don't know why
It's a strong feelin' that grows and grows One day, my life is out the door
Next day, you show me what it's for
One day, I think I know myself
Next day, you leave me on the shelf New moment, goes like this
Never forbidden
There's nothin' to stop the thief of time
Stealin' the hours that keep you away
Rushes through my veins straight to my head
My mind is a planet for you to roam This is only, just the start
It's the beginning
There's nothin' to stop the thief of time
Stealin' the hours that keep you away One day, my life is out the door
Next day, you show me what it's for
One day, I think I know myself
Next day, you leave me on the shelf In this house, I call home
Livin' together
Got a need inside and I don't know why
It's strong feelin' that grows and grows One day, my life is out the door
Next day, you show me what it's for
One day, I think I know myself
Next day, you leave me on the shelf This is only, just the start
It's the beginning
New moment, goes like this
Never forbidden
Could be clear, black and white
Make a decision
