Loving Arms

Jimbo Mathus

In the middle of a thought, you crossed my mind
I sit and wonder how you are, baby all the time
I miss you when youre gone and when you come back
Im gonna show you that I love you 'cause I want you to know thatI dont need much
When Im in your arms
Just to feel youre touch
Is enough to keep me safe from harmYoure loving arms is where I wanna be
When Im holding you and youre holding me
Things will be fine, just follow my lead
'Cause your loving arms is what I needIn the middle of the night, you invade my dreams
All the happiness we shared, seem so real to me
The moment I awake, I know for a fact
That you would never leave me baby 'cause you already know thatI dont need much
When Im in your arms
Just to feel your touch
Is enough to keep me safe from harmYoure loving arms is where I wanna be
When Im holding you and youre holding me
Things will be fine, just follow my lead
'Cause your loving arms is what I needYoure loving arms is where I wanna be
When Im holding you and youre holding me
Things will be fine, just follow my lead
'Cause your loving arms is what I needI dont need much
When Im in your arms
Just to feel your touch
Is enough to keep me safe from harmYoure loving arms is where I wanna be
'Cause when Im holding you and youre holding me
Things will be fine, just follow my lead
'Cause your loving arms is what I needYoure loving arms is where I wanna be
'Cause when Im holding you and youre holding me
Things will be fine, just follow my lead
