No Crying

Islands

I walk right in I sat right down
listenin' to the saddest song
If I don't feel bad is there something wrongI sympathize I synthesized a teardrop from my tired eyes but I don't feel sad and I cannot cryAnd I won't cry for you
'cause I'm not able to
She said I don't mind
instead think of whyThe chorus wept
The bridge caved in the verses stung your perfect skin but I don't feel like it's touched my soulSo I climbed right in listenin'
I got so close you'd think I'd been haunted by the teary eyeBut I won't cry for you
'cause I'm not able to
She said I don't mind
instead think of whyI heard your voice sing just one note
The sweetest sound came from your throat
And I think I'll cry just a little while
