

No Crying

Islands

I walk right in I sat right down
listenin' to the saddest song
If I don't feel bad is there something wrong I sympathize I synthesized a teardrop from my tired eyes but I don't feel sad and I cannot cry And I won't cry for you
'cause I'm not able to
She said I don't mind
instead think of why The chorus wept
The bridge caved in the verses stung your perfect skin but I don't feel like it's touched my soul So I climbed right in listenin'
I got so close you'd think I'd been haunted by the teary eye But I won't cry for you
'cause I'm not able to
She said I don't mind
instead think of why I heard your voice sing just one note
The sweetest sound came from your throat
And I think I'll cry just a little while
