

Alright Goodnight

The Heirs

You're shaking hands with demons, making deals in the dark
Try to run and hide in the daylight, but you won't get too far

You're selling your soul to the highest bidder
But you dam the kids, and the truth of it is
It went down the sinner
Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh right away

Will they say we're free, but for a certain fee?

You can't always get what you wanna get
Alright goodnight, alright goodnight
You can't always get what you wanna get
Alright goodnight, alright goodnight

They're God's kids, and you're hypocrites
And you call them your friends
When they disappear, and you're left to fear
What you got in the end?

You're selling your soul to the highest bidder
But you dam the kids, and the truth it is
It went down the sinner
Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh right away

Will they say you're free, but for a certain fee?

You can't always get what you wanna get
Alright goodnight, alright goodnight
You can't always get what you wanna get
Alright goodnight, alright goodnight

Trying, keep trying
No lying, keep trying
Trying, keep trying
No lying, keep trying

You can't always get what you wanna get
