Unnecessary Trouble

Hard-FI

You take it easy, you have your reasons
Sometimes it eats you inside, it feels like treason
You give it right back then they just can't take it
You mind your business, whats yours, they have to wreck itThe hypocrites don't Don't like the bed they lay in
Come out fighting
You know, you're always gonna winThere's just no point in cause unnecessary trouble
Just make sure you cause trouble when it's necessary
There's just no point in cause unnecessary trouble
Just make sure you cause trouble when it's necessaryYou make excuses for their ruthlessness
You can't imagine yourself being so careless
There is no reason why they want to hurt you
Maybe it's envy they know they just can't touch youThe hypocrites don't Don't like the bed they lay in
So come out fighting
You know you're always gonna winThere's just no point in cause unnecessary trouble
Just make sure you cause trouble when it's necessary
There's just no point in cause unnecessary trouble
Just make sure you cause trouble when it's necessaryThere's just no point in cause unnecessary trouble
Just make sure you cause trouble when it's necessary
There's just no point in cause unnecessary trouble
Just make sure you cause trouble when it's necessaryIt's necessary, it's necessary
It's necessary, it's necessary
It's necessary, it's necessary
