

Childproof (The Butcher And The Butterfly)

Queen Adreena

Childproof to the letter
You know the truth you know better
The girl on the pavement
She's spinning Don't be long come and get her
I need a drink so just forget her
Time just slips through my fingers
Hold onto life
Hold on despite this I've seen your eyes shine
Just get through the night this time
Resolve is weak I abuse it
You turn your cheek then I'll lose it Life just slips through my fingers
I blame him and I hurt him
Turn the screw rub the dirt in
There's dirt under my fingers I wanted it and I can't get
It was heaven sent so I spent it
The sky just slipped through my fingers
One more round for the lady As I hit the ground whisper maybe
I will get on my feet again
Not open to your suggestions
I'll change the locks won't answer questions
I will get on my feet again
