

Do What We Do

Portugal. The Man

Do you live in that big bright sky do you live in that Big bright sky where the sun don't grow to hot in the Summer time and the moon watched chase to hanes and all
Else it finds we don't need you to do what we do we don't Need you to do what we do so we chased our tails around
Heads were all we found in those heads a shining place a
Town inside this home we don't need you to do what we do
We don't need you to do what we do little lips hammers
For fists eyes were little lights building base from town
To town based in another town ahhh ahhh ahhh ahhh we Don't need you to do what we do we don't need you to do

What we do we don't need you to do what we do we don't Need you to do what we do mark the traisl from point to Point tape bright enough to find when the moons the only
One watching you never gotta hide ahhh ahhh ahhh ahhh we Don't need you when the boys go missing down buy the Riverside the grass don't grow to tall in the summer the Fireweed bloom marks the end of the summer time while the Willow down spills coming in with the summer we don't Need you to do what we do we don't need you to do what we Do do you live in that big bright sky do you live in that
Big bright sky
