Misunderstood (feat. Nyck Caution)

Flatbush Zombies

Selfish dream, self-esteem
Self-destruction off the beems
Helpless being, sowing seeds to insert ther solar fiend
Though it seems shit ain't panning out but it's on the screen
Know what it means
We are being deemed as a comedyThis is me, fuck you mean
Living like I'm in a dream
Visualize it unity
Divide it far as you can see
Diamonds bling while they bleed
Fighting for our future seeds
Choose a side and take the streets
I said misunderstood
I ain't afraid to say
Missing some screws above
Don't feel okay today
I pour some liquor out
I mix the pain away
Truly I do me well
It may not seem that way
I said misunderstood
I ain't afraid to say
Missing some screws above
Don't feel okay today
I pour some liquor out
I mix the pain away
Truly I do me well
It may not seem that way
It Archimedes mucho and greedy ingredients while I'm tedious
Mischievous the true elite convenient
Placing books where your TV is Alleged genius proceed to flee with hits
I'm leaving this
A form of premie fetus kid, I'm deviousProcessed by the media
This ain't no Wikipedia
Foods lacking substance
And people change for the greedier
Selfish and feeble

Weak minds blinded by ego and pride
Hope we can see with three eyes
Because we need to see whyI said misunderstood
I ain't afraid to say
Don't feel okay today
Truly I do me well
It may not seem that way
I said misunderstood
Truly I do me well
It may not seem that way
